

GIVES THEM THE SLIP

New York Detectives Try to Serve Subpoena on Reginald Vanderbilt.

SERVANT ORDERED THEM OUT

Rich Young Man Wanted to Testify in Proceedings Against Canfield.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 11.—Believing that Reginald Vanderbilt, upon whom representatives of the district attorney's office for several months have unsuccessfully endeavored to serve a subpoena compelling him to appear as a witness in criminal proceedings against Richard A. Canfield, is in this city, detectives have been stationed around the Nelson house, in Fifth Avenue, since last evening.

When it was reported yesterday that young Vanderbilt had suddenly left Philadelphia, where he had been for several weeks, a thorough search of the places in this city frequently visited by him was begun by a detective armed with a subpoena.

After a careful but fruitless search the detective evidently concluded that Vanderbilt, if really in the city, was at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Nelson, in Fifth Avenue, and an all-night vigil in the vicinity of the mansion was begun.

Nothing developed during the night, but to-day the detective succeeded in slipping into the house past a maid, while the latter was picking up the morning papers at the door. A moment later, however, the detective is said to have met determined opposition in the form of a negro servant, who demanded to know the intruder's business.

When the detective replied that he desired to see Mr. Vanderbilt, he was informed that Mr. Vanderbilt was not in the house. The detective was ordered from the premises by the negro, and on leaving again took up his station on the opposite side of the street.

Later a second attempt was made by two detectives to enter the house. A butler answered the bell, but when asked if Reginald Vanderbilt was in promptly slammed the door.

A few minutes later the bell was again rung and again the butler appeared. "I want to see Mr. Vanderbilt, and I want to see him quick," emphatically exclaimed the detective.

"The house is closed for the summer and every one has gone away," was the response.

"We know Mr. Vanderbilt is inside and we want to see him," persisted the detective.

"The only answer was the slamming of the door."

The proceedings in which Vanderbilt's testimony is desired were brought against Richard A. Canfield by the district attorney in an endeavor to show that Canfield was the proprietor of a gambling house.

Elegant Birthday Gathering.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PROVIDENCE FORGE, Va., June 11.—Never since the birth of the "Old Forge" has there been so much gaiety and merriment, the occasion being the celebration of the birthday of Colonel E. B. Townsend, of Washington, D. C., who is now in the 40th year of his age.

Among those attending were: Captain N. M. Brooks, superintendent of foreign mails, and his attractive wife; Major John L. Loud, United States Army, and wife; Captain Wm. Fletcher, United States Army, and wife; Colonel C. H. Whipple, United States Army; General James H. Bell, United States Army; Benjamin F. Peters, Navy Department; Henry L. West, Commissioner; Andrew B. Graham, J. W. McKinley, G. W. Harvey, L. P. Shoemaker, W. H. Moses, A. P. Poston, Major Richard Sylvester, Superintendent of Police; Arthur S. Biddle, United States Army; Frank Patterson, all of Washington, D. C.; Former Mayor of Cincinnati Arthur Smith and wife; H. D. Jacobberger, Baltimore, Md.; Mr. Emmett Sutton, Richmond, Va.; J. B. Richardson and wife, W. F. Gilliland and wife, Edna Earle Richardson, Frances Jordane and sisters, of Providence Forge. This occasion was highly enjoyed by all who attended.

Colonel Townsend has for years owned "The Forge" estate, but for the last twelve years has been living in Washington. Since that time he has sold a large part of his property. His old home place he keeps as an old family relic. This he has lately modernized, and it is a spot of beauty and of great historic interest.

At this pleasant home he owns a large piece of ground and takes three miles long. In honor of the Colonel and his many guests his country friends gave a large picnic May 23d which was largely attended.

Few people outside of this vicinity have knowledge of the great historical interest that attaches to this place. History relates that the oldest iron forge established in this State, if not in the United States, was founded here in 1760. And records are in existence which prove that the main house was built over 200 years ago.

FRATERNAL NEWS NOTES.

An enthusiastic meeting of Mattaponi Tribe, No. 119, Improved Order of Red Men, was held in Nelson's Hall, Fulton, last Wednesday night. Three "pale-faces" were adopted into the tribe.

A report was received from the committee on Pocahontas degree, which showed that 51 names had been received, that application had been made for a charter and the officers would be installed next Tuesday night.

Past Grand Representative Ernest R. Boyer, of Alexandria, visited Marshall Lodge, No. 12, Knights of Pythias, last Tuesday night, and delivered an eloquent address in behalf of the Hines Memorial Hall.

Marshall Lodge will be visited next Tuesday night by Rev. J. H. Dickinson, grand prelate of the order.

The regular review of Fairmount Hive, Lady Macabees, was held in Card's Hall, last Tuesday afternoon. After routine business had been transacted, Lady Commander Thompson presented Miss England, State Commander, and Miss Connors, State Deputy, with an umbrella as a token of appreciation for the services they have rendered Fairmount Hive.

Dixie Aerle, No. 238, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will run an excursion to West Point next Wednesday.

Rear Admiral Harrie Webster, U. S. Navy, delivered his interesting lecture, "Japan and the Japanese," before a large audience of members and friends of Damon Lodge, Knights of Pythias, in Marshall Hall, last Friday night. After the lecture, refreshments were served.

All of the officers of the Supreme Tent, Knights of the Macabees, were re-elected at the convention which was held at Battle Creek, Mich., last week.

The Heptasoph Fraternal Association, of Baltimore, has completed arrangements for celebrating Heptasoph Day next Tuesday, June 14, when all of the Heptasophs will spend the day at Tolchester Beach. Among attractions arranged for the enjoyment of the Heptasophs will be exhibition drills, continuous open-air concerts by the Fifth Maryland Regiment Band, dancing, boating, fishing, crabbing, etc.

Mr. J. P. Brown, of Richmond, organized two conclaves of Heptasophs in May; one at Hampton, Va., and the other at Port Norfolk, Va.

The following officers will be installed at the meeting of Ivanhoe Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., in Lee Camp Hall next Thursday night, June 16:

E. H. Courtney, Chancellor-Commander; W. B. Freeman, Vice-Chancellor; Andrew B. Evans, Prelate; Jos. C. Taylor, Master-at-Arms.

The inner and outer guards will be elected and nominated next Thursday night.

The New Albany (Ind.) Company, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, has rented a portion of Glenwood Park, near the city for drill purposes. The drill ground will be brilliantly illuminated with electric lights. The company will make a determined effort to capture the prize in the drill contests at the Knights of Pythias encampment in Louisville in August. The drill team of the New Albany Company has taken part in numerous drill contests and has won at different times as much as $1,000 in drill prizes.

In referring to the fraternal orders' big Fourth of July celebration in Atlanta, the Atlanta Journal says:

"This celebration means much to the people of Atlanta. It shows that the foundation of the republic, as found in the great middle classes of the fraternalities, is alive to the great privilege they enjoy of being citizens of the United States."

"The result of this united effort on the part of those fraternal men who spend much time and thought in the interest of their fellows will be the regular observation of the day, which means so much to American citizenship and to the progress of the world."

"From a sort of family gathering projected for that day, the program has grown to include a great barbecue to feed 6,000 people, fireworks, athletic games, an oration fitting to the day, speeches from prominent fraternalists on the various orders they represent, as a great sham battle by the Fifth Regiment. This latter feature will cost $500."

"So far 23 lodges have joined in this great movement, and it may be said that these organizations are the most progressive of their kind in the city. They have seen the great good to come from such a celebration and were not slow to grasp the opportunity."

...At The Casino...

There is to be another bill of vaudeville at the Casino for this week, commencing to-morrow night, and the management is particularly strong in its declaration that the attraction is going to be one of the popular events of the entire season.

In making up this declaration is the fact that the bill is one of much novelty; another reason is that the bill is made up of the kind of acts that please.

One reason for this bill it has been selected because of individual worth. In availing the program a good deal of attention has been paid to quality. It is pretty well agreed that quantity does not always count, for there is hardly any one who does not first prefer quality. And quality is the strong factor of this bill.

One of the quality features will be the contribution of the famous Piccolo Midgates, and another feature will be Lionel Strongfort, the modern Samson. The Flurry Trio will also be on the bill, as will be Dorothy Walters the female whistler.

A word or two concerning these acts will be a sort of tip on what is to be expected. The Piccolo Midgates are four little men, who came over to this country from Germany only a few weeks ago. They are as clever as clever can be as character comedians, and there are few big men who are better gymnasts. They are better than any other act they can teach some of the champions a nice lot of new ideas. And when it comes to boxing and wrestling they know just how to entertain.

Lionel Strongfort is without doubt the finest specimen of absolute physical culture in the land. He controls every muscle in his body, and he has developed all of them.

The Flurry Trio made a great hit at the Bijou just a little while ago. They are excellent fancy dancers. There are others that help make up the sort of bill that will be pleasing and entertaining.

Matinees will be given Wednesday and Saturday.

MRS. WESTON'S CHECK.
The Court Allows Her the Principal, But No Interest.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 11.—In the Superior Court Friday afternoon Judge Long signed an order instructing W. W. Jones, receiver of the Western Carolina Bank, to pay Mrs. Weston the sum of $1,191. This is a case of long standing and has created considerable interest.

On the Saturday previous to the closing of the Western Carolina Bank on Monday, Mrs. Weston made a deposit of $1,191 in the shape of a check drawn on the Chemical Bank of New York. The receivers were appointed on the evening of the day the bank failed. Mrs. Weston made a demand for the return of her check, but the receivers who were in control of the bank's affairs, refused the request. The matter was then taken to court. Mrs. Weston not only asking for the return of the amount of the check, but also claiming interest from the date of deposit.

The interest, which now amounts to something like $25, was instructed the judge's order simply instructing the receiver to pay the amount called for by the check.
